Mordial was a captain in the army of Queen Meve.

Biography

Mordial accompanied Queen Meve as she and her forces fought Nilfgaardian troops by the Yaruga river in the Battle for the Bridge. When the witcher Geralt proved to be instrumental in the Northern victory, Meve decided to knight him - however, she had difficulty speaking due to having broken teeth. Mordial then recited the accolade in her name.

Notes

The reason for his surname being changed from Odo is unknown.
